being the first of the pitchers to repert. He has not had a great amount of work, but hopes to be shie to give a good necount of himself in the exhibition games. Brandon won fourteen and lost seven games for the Raieigh team last season, and he is expected to do good work for the Shoemakers this year.

With Brandon, there are five men on hand now-Smith, Zimmerman, Evans and Jackson making up the squad.

Transportation has gone to all of the pitchers and catchers, and all of them are expected to be on hand Saturday, or in time for regular work to begin Monday. By to-morrow tickets will be sent to the remainder of the team, and these players are to be here the jisst of next week.

Hoffman, the prospective left fielder, has asked that he be permitted to report as late as April 8, and this has been granted him. He wishes to stay away that long on account of a business engagement.

William Zimmerman, a semi-professional player from New York City and a brother of Zimmerman, the great second basemann of the Chicago Cubs, has reported to Manager Dick Smith, although he was not notified to come. Zimmerman has had considerable amateur and semi-professional work, and he is very anxious for the local team to give him a trial. Although it was the intention of the team not to bring Zimmerman here, now that he is here he will be given a through trial, and if he has the goods he can make the team.

The Philadelphia National League Bashball Club will arrive in Richmond at 7:50 o'clock this morning from Raieigh, N.
